CITY ITEMS.

Artificial Human Eyes,
Adjusted without pain, by Dr. Spencer, Dentist, 254 Penn street.

An Uncommon Thing.

To the reading and reflecting mind of one who will weigh and consider, Dr. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER presents a subject of more than ordinary interest, as has frequently been shown by the various publications which have appeared in the GAZETTE from time to time.

First—It is no common remedy.

Second—It has mastered some of the most malignant and usually considered incurable diseases.

Third—It does so, by thoroughly renovating the stomach and enabling it to completely convert into available nutriment the food that is swallowed.

DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER will cure indigestion by placing the stomach, the preparer of blood material, in a healthy normal condition. It will, therefore, allow no blood material to pass into the general current of blood in an unassimilated form.

It will aid the natural secreting organs to carry out of the body that which needs to be carried out, in order to preserve it as a whole in full force and vigor. It will carry into the system more health and strength giving principle than any medicine we have ever known, and it will do so without the slighest interruption to the ordinary avocations of life; and, instead of debilitating, will energize and strengthen with every dose, without the usual after-prostration incident to the use of bitters and so-called tonics, which merely force the system to an abnormal state, to allow it to relapse, after their effects have passed away, into a state of lethargy and prostration worse than that from which it had rescued them.

Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher cures in a lasting and permanent manner, as any one can discover by one trial. Unlike most bitters, instead of creating and fostering the appetite for strong drink, it will cure the aptitude therefor, and, in many instances, it has entirely banished it. Be careful to ask for "Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher," as so valuable a medicine is apt to be imitated with spurious compounds similar in name, but wholly devoid of its wonderful merits. Look for Dr. Keyser's name on the bottle and over the cork. If your druggist does not keep it, write to Dr. Keyser, 140 Wood street, and he will forward by express.

FROM CARLISLE, PA.

Riot Between Soldiers and Citizens—Two Persons Killed and Several Wounded.

CARLISLE, (Pa.) March 16.—Last evening two soldiers came into town, and when near the Court House were attacked by A. Hammill and P. Gilmore. Neither party were hurt. The soldiers left for the garrison, and about eight o'clock some fifty of them came into town armed with carbines, revolvers and sabres. They halted near the Court House, and fired into a crowd of citizens standing near the point where the polls were located. The citizens drew revolvers and returned the fire, when a general riot ensued. The soldiers retreated on a run, and the citizens gave pursuit. The soldiers took a position in the edge of town. A guard arrived from the post, and the firing was kept up for some time. The guard arrested several citizens and started for the garrison. On the way they met Hammill, who had a gun on his shoulder. He was ordered by the guard to lay the gun down and, on his refusal, they fired on him. One ball struck him in the left breast, to the left of the right nipple, and came out near the left shoulder blade. The wounded man died in three hours. Among the wounded are Mrs. Stewart, who was standing in the door of her own house, shot through the left foot; Thomas Zimmerman, through the forearm, breaking the bone, and Jacob Small, shot through the centre of the right hand; a man named Hazlebaugh, shot in the head, cutting the scalp. Two soldiers were wounded in the head, and one in the leg, the former mortally. For several nights past the soldiers have been in town creating much disturbance. There are about four hundred soldiers at the post.

FROM MEXICO.

The Empire Dissolving—Assembling of Forces to Attack Maximilian.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—A letter from Alvarez to Consul Godley, of this city, dated Guerrero, February 26, says that Maximilian left the city of Mexico with Marquesa and two thousand men, and must now be at Queretaro, where from six to eight thousand traitors were assembled. Escobedo is marching twelve thousand men in order to attack them on the way, and will incorporate his army forces with those of General Regules, Arsea, Antillon and other officers, amounting to about five men. My opinion is that our month more and the so-called empire will have terminated forever. I give you my best congratulations at such favorable news, and recommend that you give it to our friends.

(Signed) D. ALVAREZ.

General Horan, Imperialist, commanding the City of Mexico, addressed proposals and arrangements to Lerdoa, the Republican General commanding Queretaro, to surrender the place to the Liberal forces. The Liberals took peaceable possession of Acapulco.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

(FIRST SESSION.)

SUPPLEMENTAL RECONSTRUCTION.

The Bill Passed the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 16, 1867.

SENATE.

IMPROVEMENT OF THE MISSISSIPPI.

Mr. HOWE presented the resolutions of the Wisconsin Legislature for the improvement of the Mississippi river and aid in the construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

THE TREASURY INVESTIGATION.

Mr. SHERMAN, from the Committee on Finance, reported a concurrent resolution that the Joint Committee on Retrenchment be instructed to make a careful and minute examination of the methods adopted by the Treasury Department of printing bonds, notes and securities, what guards have been adopted to protect the interest of the United States, what additional guards are necessary, whether there have been any fraudulent issues of bonds, notes, or coupons, if so, by whose fault or negligence, and further, to examine into the official conduct of those charged with the printing, registration and issuing of notes, bonds and securities of the United States, and that said Committee have power to send for persons and papers, and to examine the same, and take testimony, and report at the next session of Congress.

Mr. SHERMAN said the House and Senate had each agreed to separate special Committees for this purpose, but he thought the investigation could best be made by a joint Committee like the Pacific Railroad Committee. The Treasury Department desired these investigations so as to set at rest the false reports circulated for speculative purposes regarding the fraudulent issue of bonds.

Mr. GRIMES said the subject was of great importance, and it would not be amiss to make such investigations annually.

ABATEMENT OF DUTIES.

Mr. CHANDLER, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill to allow an abatement on damaged goods imported into the United States.

Mr. CHANDLER asked the immediate consideration of the bill, but Mr. MORRILL moved that it lie over till Monday and be printed, which motion prevailed.

COIN OF RICHMOND BANKS.

Mr. WILLIAMS called up the joint resolution of the House in regard to the coin taken from Richmond banks, now on special deposit in the Treasury. Passed.

SUPPLEMENTARY RECONSTRUCTION.

The reconstruction bill was then taken up.

Mr. HOWE moved to amend by striking out the words "and if the said constitution shall be approved by Congress," and insert in lieu thereof "and if said constitution shall be approved by Congress."

Mr. TED. SHERMAN said the bill had been amended since it was reported to embody its principles.

Mr. HOWE withdrew this amendment and then moved to strike out the words, "shall be framed by and with the prerogatives of a State." Rejected.

Mr. HOWARD moved an amendment, substituting a position for that in the bill, which, after debate, was rejected.

Mr. SUMNER moved to amend the fourth section, making the result to be a majority of the whole number of the Constitution depend on a majority of registered electors, instead of a majority of qualified electors. Rejected—9 to 34.

Mr. HOWARD, at 4.50, moved to adjourn. Negatived.

Mr. EATON moved to amend the fourth section, so that the Constitution shall be adopted when voted for by a majority of those voting thereon. Rejected—9 to 34.

Mr. EDMUNDS moved an amendment that at least three-fifths of the registered electors shall vote on the question of ratification.

Mr. CAMERON, at six o'clock, moved to adjourn. Negatived—yeas 9, nays 34.

Mr. EDMUNDS' amendment was lost—yeas 19, nays 24.

Mr. EDMUNDS again moved it, modified so that one-half shall be required to vote on the question of ratification. Adopted—yeas 24, nays 19.

Several other amendments were offered and rejected.

Mr. WILSON offered as an amendment an additional section, that the duties imposed by this act upon the commanding officer shall, in his absence, be performed by the Governor, and upon his taking the oath prescribed by the act of July, '62. Rejected.

The bill was then reported from the Committee of the Whole and reported to Senate.

Mr. DRAKE renewed his amendment voted down on Thursday, providing that the vote shall be taken in each State Convention to form constitutions, and according to the result of those votes the State shall or shall not be held. The amendment was adopted.

Mr. EDMUNDS moved to amend by requiring that a majority of the registered voters shall vote on the question of calling a convention. Adopted.

Mr. MORTON, at 9.45, moved to adjourn till 9 o'clock A. M. Monday. Disagreed to.

Mr. HOWARD moved to amend by inserting in regard to the oath contained in the first section, the same as was voted down in the Committee of the Whole. Agreed to.

Mr. FOWLER, at 10.30 o'clock, moved to adjourn. Disagreed to.

Mr. SUMNER moved, as an amendment, to provide that no State lately in rebellion, or State shall require the establishment and maintenance of a system of common schools upon the ballot, and not by reason of color. Disagreed to—yeas 20, nays 20.

The question was then taken on the passage and the bill passed. Yeas 28, nays 2. The two negatives were Messrs. Buckalew and Hendricks. Mr. Johnson voted aye. The other Democrats were absent.

The Senate then, at 11.50, adjourned.

CAIRO, March 16.—Snow fell and thawed, most all day, clearing up this evening; mercury 32. The river rose two inches during the past twenty-four hours; stationary since noon. Business dull.

LOUIS, March 17.—The Democratic State Central Committee publish a request that the democracy of the several congressional districts shall appoint delegates to the National Democratic Convention, to be held at Louisville on the 7th of May.

Sam. B. Clifford, a notorious character, with several aliases, who is under indictment here for horse stealing, was arrested again yesterday as an escaped convict from the Northern Indiana Penitentiary, to which institution he was sentenced in 1861 for horse stealing.

About four inches of snow fell yesterday; the weather is clear to-day, but still cold and freezing.

Extensive Fire at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, March 17.—The fire in Howard's Row, Jefferson street, involves a loss of $100,000, one half of which is covered by insurance in northern offices. H. Carver, thence to the grocery and commission house of MONDAY, MARCH 18, 1867.

THE SUPREME JUDGESHIP.

Some weeks ago we brought forward the Hon. H. W. WILLIAMS, one of the Judges of the District Court of this county, as a person eminently fit, both in point of character and qualifications, for the seat upon the bench of the Supreme Court soon to be vacated by the expiration of the term for which the Hon. GEORGE W. WOODWARD was elected. Several of our contemporaries, in this city and elsewhere, have since added their testimony to our's in this matter, in a manner most decidedly complimentary to the Judge. On Saturday last, a meeting of the members of the bar of this county was held in the District Court Room, at which a preamble and resolutions were adopted, that will be found in another column. This meeting was fully attended. The gentlemen who participated in it have all practiced before Judge WILLIAMS and have full knowledge of his judicial abilities. Not a few of them have attained a high position in the legal profession. The opinion of such a body, on a question of this sort, is entitled to a large measure of consideration. Its doings will doubtless attract attention, particularly among lawyers, throughout the Commonwealth; and we trust will elicit favorable responses from the bars of many counties, especially on this side of the Alleghenies.

POLITICAL PROGRESSION.

Among the healthy signs of the times in this progressive age, is the improved moral tone of the political world, by the inauguration of reforms which will tend eventually to eradicate the evils of our political system. It is idle for political tricksters to endeavor to stop the car of progress, as these reforms spring from the better class of society, and a class too, whose views must be respected and obeyed sooner or later. It is but the legitimate results of the triumphs of Christianity, and it is only a question of time when the ultimatum will be reached of securing a political system based upon the principles of Christianity and the highest grade of approved morals. The leavening process has been at work for years gradually assimilating the body politic into the healthy condition shadowed forth within a brief space of time.

Parties are necessary to the equilibrium of our Government, and the evils and bad policy of one party gives stability and power to the opposition. The sleepless vigilance of the political leaders of the respective parties is a safeguard to the true interests of the Government. The conflict of great principles furnish the status of each party, and they give color and edge to all the minor questions of the day. It is a matter beyond peradventure, which party is using its power to uphold the right and propagate moral principles, and which one is defending oppression and wrong, under the guise of conservatism and constitutional rights. It is an acknowledged fact the world over, that the Republican party is the faithful ally of religion and good morals. Acknowledging God in the affairs of government; contending in all possible ways for the rights of the sable sons of Africa; fostering the cause of temperance; insisting upon the observances of religious obligations in public institutions; in a word, doing every thing that will tend to honor God and elevate man. While these great cardinal elements loom out so prominently, yet, there are some dark spots arising from the reckoncy of professed friends of the party, that will disappear in time, if the Republican party are faithful to the mission imposed upon it—not to cease the good work on hand, until our political structure is reconstructed fully upon the principles of Christianity and sound morals. Akin to the doings of the legislative body of the General Government we find many of the members of the respective houses also, engaged in religious exercises in various ways, and temperance reform, by associated effort, which promises to do much towards purging the Capital of the odium heretofore attached to that place by the evil designs of wicked legislators.

The status of the Opposition crops out in their votes in the Legislative halls of Congress and the various States; its nominating Conventions from the State Convention down to the smallest body of that party; its local action upon moral and reform questions; its association with improper means and organizations, to effect its object, and obtain power, are defined in unmistakable language. Let any one read the resolutions of the Conventions of the Democratic party in any part of the country, and they will see their lamentation for the reform accomplished to elevate the oppressed, and the threats of retaliation when the opportunity occurs. The same animus develops itself in every way in our local politics, by throwing obstacles towards securing proper legislation in the traffic of liquors and other important reform measures.

These general observations serve to introduce a brief notice of the successful efforts now in force in advancing the temperance cause in this State. It is but a short time since that men of good moral character, and members of the Church too, were compelled either to avoid a political canvas, or else sacrifice principle directly or indirectly, to secure an election to office. Such was the debasing means used to secure votes that a Christian man rarely passed through a struggle for office without tarnishing his good name and injuring Christianity. Party was denounced this tribute to intoxi[cation], and such means, but that is past and gone. It is hardly to be wondered at that the advocates of liberal [views] in liquor, and kindred [ques]tions, had such power in their associates when it is remembered that the tone of society was at such a low ebb on these subjects.

The recent canvas for Governor has developed an element of moral power, perhaps never attained before in this State. 'Tis true great principles were at stake in the canvas, and such as were bound to succeed, yet, it is also equally true, that our noble standard bearer did not barter his temperance principles to secure his nomination or his election. He stood on the foundation of right, and succeeded. What a proud record our excellent Governor has, not only during the rebellion, but of grand moral principles. No wonder the recent noble stand taken by him at the late State Temperance Convention, and the thrilling words uttered by him on that memorable occasion, are causing the friends of the liquor traffic to tremble with apprehensions, of restrictions of the most stringent character.

Take for instance the sentiment of this community now compared with a year ago. Then, temperance men were alarmed at the prospect before them, and fears were entertained that the safeguards, poor as they were, would be removed. But the great heart of the Christian public were moved, and the work of reform commenced inside the churches, and outside by its leagues and societies of Sons of Temperance and Templars, so that now the current is completely changed, and the friends of temperance are organized for accomplishing reforms, which a year or so ago, were deemed impracticable. From the present out-look the time has passed when the wishes of the better portion of our community in the churches, and those connected with the temperance organizations, will be slighted or trampled upon, in general and local elections.

This progressive step in our political system, and such avowals as has been made by candidates for high offices in other States, not to buy office with money and other improper means, to secure their object, leaves one thing more to be done to elevate the status of political circles, that of Christian and moral men attending the primary nominating meetings to prevent the wrongs sometimes perpetrated and accomplished by their indifference and neglect of this duty. The best way to prevent improper persons from receiving offices of trust and responsibility, is to guard well the incipient steps at the primary meeting. If our order-loving citizens neglect this precaution, they should not complain when improper persons are elevated to places of power.

Taking all things into account, we think great strides have been taken of late towards securing a better condition of things in this State, in our future political campaigns. It has also been demonstrated that a man can be elected to office on principle without catering to low and groveling means.

A COMMITTEE appointed by the last Congress to investigate the affairs of the New York Custom-House, as will be remembered, made startling disclosures of corruption, in which Collector SMYTHE, Senator DOOLITTLE, Senator PATTERSON, (the President's son-in-law,) and a Mrs. PERRY, a friend of the President, was mixed up. After the Committee made its report the two Senators, in their places, ventured upon denials, taking care not to cover the points actually charged upon them. Mr. SMYTHE at last appeared before the public in a card, protesting his innocence, and aspersing the Committee. Mr. HULBARD, as the account of Congressional doings we published on Saturday, showed, rejoined, damaging the Collector beyond the possibility of recovery. It is now reported from Washington that the feeling in Congress runs very strong against Mr. SMYTHE, and that if the President does not remove him, he will be impeached. As we read the accounts, the President is as much at fault as the Collector. What better right had the President to ask to have his daughters and his female favorites, provided for corruptuly, through the Custom-house, than the Collector had to conclude the infamous arrangement?

HARRISBURG, March 15th, 1867.

EDITORS GAZETTE—DEAR SIRS:—Since I have been a member of the Senate of Pennsylvania, there have been in that body abler advocates of liberal railroad legislation, but none truer than I. The narrow policy that denies a development to the State and country, or would hold it subject to the will of a monopoly, is abhorrent to my judgment and conscience.

I called your attention yesterday, and now do so again, to a paragraph in yours of the 13th, beginning with the words "That we may do no injustice," in which, I have no doubt by oversight, the very great injustice is done me of omitting my name from a list of Senators true to a free railroad system. I co-operated with those Senators to produce a free railroad law; and was one of four, who, failing in that, and believing the bill passed, entitled "an act to authorize the formation of railroad corporations," a miserable lie, foolishly and weakly contrived to cheat the people, voted against it. Other Senators, equally true to a liberal system, differing from the four only as to measures, after vain efforts to amend, voted for the bill finally, simply as being the best they could get, and a step, as they conceived, in the right direction.

I regret that while all the above Senators were mentioned creditably in the paragraph referred to, the omission of my name should convey the inference that I was one of those who aided to pass such a choke sham. I regret it the more because I see your article copied to-day in the Press and Telegraph, and it may be copied in many other papers.

Hereafter, dear sirs, if you have occasion in your paper to name Senators who believe in a future for the commonwealth, and are trying to make it, please do not omit me.

Very respectfully yours,
ROBERT AUDLEY BROWNE.

REMARKS.—Mr. BROWNE states his own case correctly, and we regret the accidental omission of his name from the list we published of Senators true to the principle of a General Railroad Law.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph seems determined that we shall enjoy no credit for saying pleasant things of Simon Cameron. It no longer adopts our editorials as its own, but credits them to other papers. Come gentlemen, give us a fair chance, and what we can say "true as gospel" don't attribute to the Lancaster Examiner.

ACCORDING to the returns of recent Parliamentary elections in Prussia, a large majority of the people of Schleswig are Danes, and desire to be under the government of Denmark. While asserting with great boldness and power the right of the solidarity of peoples, Prussia defies that right when it suits her ambition so to do.

EX-GOVERNOR JOHNSTON is a heavy load on the President. He must be provided for in spite of the Senate, which has already refused to recognize his claims to office. He has just been appointed to fill the Internal Revenue Collector's office at Philadelphia until such time as the Senate may displace him.

THE cotton crop of the Southern States, last year, reached two million bales, and sold for $200,000,000. In 1859, the crop was five millions of bales, and brought $250,000,000. Of course, the crop last year cost considerably the most, by reason of taxes, paper money, and higher wages.

THE Blair County Whig urges the Republicans of that District to unite in requesting Ex-Governor Curtin to become their candidate for the State Senate, to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of the term of the Hon. L. W. Hall.

THE Chicago Tribune advises Cowan and Doolittle to "save as a remnant of their reputations by following Jim Lane's example of blowing out his brains." Perhaps Lane had an advantage over these gentlemen.

THE spiritual teaching of Mr. Henry Ward Beecher has resulted in queer fruit. No less than five members of his congregation have been detected in distilling contraband whisky.

THERE is a raid upon Canada on foot among the Fenians. It cannot be productive of any good result to the cause of Irish liberty.

GOV. CURTIN sailed for France on Saturday last from New York. His family remains in Philadelphia.

FROM RICHMOND.

Editorial Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.

MONUMENT HOUSE,
RICHMOND, VA., March 14, 1867.

I reached this renowned metropolis at 1 P. M. on the 13th, leaving Washington at 7 A. M. I came by steamboat fifty-five miles to Acquia Creek, thence by Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway seventy-five miles to this city. I expected to get a boat for Yorktown at six this morning, and having but a few hours, spent them in looking in upon the House of Delegates, where the consideration of a bill to provide by taxation for paying the interest on the State debt was postponed for a few days, to see what Congress would do. One of the speakers did not feel quite sure that Virginia was not about played out; he doubted whether the Legislature would ever again meet after the 4th of July. A good deal of the virus of slavery and rebellion lingers in the breasts of a few of the delegates, while most of the members appear willing to dry up the tears they have been shedding over the spilled milk of secession and betake themselves to all approved expedients for building up the waste places of the Old Dominion. This doubtless will soon become the prevailing policy of all judicious Virginians. The geographical position of this State is probably better than that of any other, the length of lines of railroads and canals extending from Tidewater to the navigable rivers of the West, is shorter than through any other State. The climate is all that could be wished; the agricultural capacities and the undeveloped wealth of mineral deposits are vast. It only remains for the statesmen of Virginia to adopt and pursue a wise policy, by extending every possible encouragement to the immigration of capital and population from the North or from the States of Europe. Over her vast domain where there is one family living by and on the soil, there should be ten or twenty. On all the route from Acquia creek to Richmond, seventy-five miles, I don't think I saw more way-side farm houses than thirty or forty, while there should be five hundred. There are in all this distance not a hundred acres on which a Yankee or German farmer might not support and educate a family, and after paying something for roads, school houses and churches, put a little in the Savings bank.

Richmond is a handsome city, on the James River. The site is beautiful; the streets are regular and wide; the sidewalks and gutters of nearly all, the cartway of but two or three, are paved. Population, I would guess, about sixty thousand, including the suburb of Manchester. There is a large colored population, who are now well provided with schools, of which I visited several today, (being detained by no boat for Yorktown this morning.) The order and discipline of these schools are good; the progress and proficiency of the classes quite surprised me.

The James River Canal affords an immense water power which is but partially improved, Yankee skill and capital are needed to make Richmond a first class manufacturing city. When the F. F's. shall take a second place—giving precedence to skill, capital and labor, their city cannot fail to become a mart of manufacture and trade. K.

HABITUAL CONSTIPATION.

OW TO EFFECT A CERTAIN AND PERMANENT CURE.—Some occupations of life predispose to Costiveness, especially those which allow but little exercise. Persons who contract this unfortunate habit of body, under such circumstances, might possibly be relieved by changing their sedentary employments for others of a more active kind; but this is by no means certain. Habitual constipation is a very obstinate disorder. All the ordinary so-called remedies have only aggravate it. Nothing can be more injurious than the continued use of strong aperients. They at first irritate, and finally almost paralyze the bowels, rendering them incapable of that enormous dose of cathartic medicines have effect upon them. A mild aperient, combined with a gentle stimulant, in the true Stomachic, and a combination in the happiest proportion, of those properties is found in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This famous stomachic invigorates the whole intestinal canal, while its quickly re-owing from its own resources, all impediments to a free passage through them. In re purgative has lists effects in relation. No ordinary stimulant effects the desired object. Cases of Constipation abandoned as hopeless by distinguished medical men, have been cured in a few weeks by the Bitters. To those who have tried all the usual medicines of the dispensary in vain, we say, try the above-all its stimulant and aperient. There is no sufficient reason why Constipation should be the consequence of sedentary habits. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, by supplying the vigor which would otherwise be derived from exercise, will in most cases enable the system to perform its exretory functions regularly and healthfully.

THE INDIANS AND THE WHITE PINE.

Although long known to the aborigines of America, Dr. George W. Sweet, of Boston, has brought into shape for common use, in the form of a vegetable preparation called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which for a number of years has given great satisfaction in the cure of all those ailments dependent on an inflamed or irritated condition of the mucous membranes of the animal organism. Sore throat, diabetes, dropsy, chronic bronchitis, catarrh, general debility, and other complaints, when depending on a debilitated state of the intestines, it is one of the most valuable discoveries ren ntly added to pharmaceutical medicine. It is likewise a most valuable compound for diseases of the kidneys and bladder generally, as any one can satisfy himself upon a single trial. Every one who has the lumbago, sciatica, coughs, colds, pine for sores and ulcers, but Dr. Swett has gone to work and prepared from the sweet inside bark of that valuable tree a compound that will meet every indication where the pine would be valuable.

It is confidently recommended for the following ailments:

Diseases in young or middle aged people;
Stoppage of the Urine;
The same difficulty in children during the night;
Gravel, Kidney Trouble in old people;
Ulcerated Kidneys, Ulcerated Bladder;
Discharge of mucus or pus, or blood from the bladder;
Bright's Disease of the Kidneys;
Pain in the Kidneys or small of the Back;
Pain in the Bladder, Heat and Scalding;

A PRINTING OFFICE FOR SALE.—To any good printer who has the ability and inclination to purchase and edit a weekly newspaper—Republican in politics—a rare opportunity is here offered.

Being desirous to engage in another business—no money—no profit—but more congenial to my personal tastes—I offer for sale the office of the "Fairmont Field." It is a five column quarto paper with a first-rate reputation throughout the State. Its circulation is good, its editorial corps and has a fine subscription list of prompt paying subscribers. As I have adopted the cash system, the business of the office is in a healthful condition and is well supplied with type and all the appliances required for publishing a weekly paper and for all demands for Job Work. My receipts for the past year, on account of subscription, advertising and job work, have been nearly $3,000, while the cost of paper and common labor has been about $1,500. Such being a profitable business, any one wishing to engage in it can purchase the office at a bargain. I employ three hands. About half of the time of one is required for Job Work, and the time of two could be employed in the same manner. I have also a new power press and two new cases.

The "Vedette" is the only paper in Marion county, which always gives a Republican majority of from 400 to 600. Fairmont, the county seat, contains about 1,000 inhabitants, and is a delightful location for its healthfulness and the intelligence and sociality of its citizens. It is situated on the Hair moore and Ohio Railroad, 24 miles from Wheeling.

I will sell the concern and its large, new, and well selected assortment, which is not more than half worn out, for $2,000 in cash.

Personal desirous to purchase are requested to address me at once.

THE BUTLER COUNTY HOMICIDE.

Trial of John B. Adlington for the Murder of Sidney B. Cunningham and James H. Teeples, at Porterville.

THURSDAY, March 14, 1867.

The prisoner was brought into Court by the Sheriff. The Jury in the box were called and answered to their names.

There are many ladies in attendance on the trial. Great interest is manifested by the community. Mr. Adlington is about thirty-four or five years of age; sandy hair, light complexion; blue eyes and red moustache. He is rather spare in flesh, of medium height, and moves with a light elastic step. Altogether, he is what would be called a good looking man. He has a wife and six children. He once worked in Johnson and Stockton's Printing office. Has been a soldier.

James Anderson recalled—I saw Teeple fall when Oliver let go of him. After Cunningham knocked Oliver down, I did not see him again until after the fight was over. He was within two or three feet of the North room door, to the right of the fire. It was not much over a minute after Cunningham hit Bowder until he hit Oliver. John L. Jones, James Gibson, Sidney Oliver, William Barker and Cunningham were in the room; Didn't see Teeple at that time; there were a good many standing around Cunningham. Did not have much chance to see as they were shoving around. I did not see the defendant at this time; there were others whose faces were turned in the room; I saw Oliver advance toward Cunningham at the time he was knocked down; when he knocked Oliver down I drew the poker on Cunningham; I got the poker; Bowder when I got the poker; James Gibson took the poker from me; my attention was drawn to the fight between Teeple and Oliver, but the crowd prevented me from seeing much; did not see Cunningham get out, saw no one strike him; the hall door stood open; so did the north room door; it was not more than a minute after this that I saw the defendant in the hall door; I was acquainted with him prior to this fight; I saw no one have a weapon; don't know of any one having a weapon; I have had no conversation with the defendant since that time; I don't think of anything further that was said or done.

By the Court—Did not see any one strike defendant before he picked up the chair; did not see him struck at all that night by any one.

About the time the fight came came on, I was in the bar room; heard the racket in the sitting room; jumped up and went in; was about the center of the room on the east side; John Oliver crowded through the throng around the north door, and held his hand out [this way] toward Cunningham; I believe Cunningham knocked him down; saw Adlington in the north door with something in his hand; I thought it was a round stick, about sixteen inches long and an inch and a quarter thick; thought it was a stick Oliver used to knock his lance into his horse; it had lead in the large end. Adlington had the small end in his hand; I think he struck some one; he brought it down this way [describing the motion]; did not see to [or] he struck; saw Cunningham to my left, close to me; saw Adlington was close to the door; I think the blow hit some one standing; heard no sound from the blow; Cunningham was standing some six feet from Adlington. The next thing I saw was Adlington on the left of Cunningham. My attention was then drawn toward Oliver, and when I looked around again he was gone. Adlington was two or three feet from Cunningham at this particular time. Saw neither of them using hand or foot. I suppose he was near enough to have hit Cunningham. He was facing Cunningham full face. He was [nearly in line with Cunningham; don't know how he held his hands. There were no persons between me and the door at that time; I heard nothing said by either of the men; I was not attention was drawn to Oliver, or Bowder, at the other corner of the room, and in a short time—a few seconds—I looked around and Cunningham and Adlington were gone; there might have been time to strike a blow. The next I saw of Mr. Cunningham he was lying in the hall to the right of the outside door as you come to the hall.

Court adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The prisoner was brought into Court by the Sheriff. The jury were called over and answered to their names. JAMES M. Marshall recalled.—I heard Adlington say he supposed they would all be arrested—himself among the rest; they would have lodging in the stone house. He said he was known as a fighting man and supposed he would be arrested with the crowd, although he was not in the room.

James R. Pringle sworn.—I was at the party; my brother-in-law came into the house and told me they were fighting. I ran to the house. Going into the hall, I observed something to the right of the door; turned and found it to be a man; ascertained afterwards it was Mr. Cunningham; I put my hand on his head, he appeared to be lifeless. I got out on the beam walk; Adlington came out, and I remarked to those men will certainly die; the said' I dont give a dam; there is no blood on me; I wish you would note the time; I am going home." I said, "John, that is not true."

George Moon, sworn.—I was at John Oliver's on the night of the 24th December; in the house a little after dark; saw John Oliver at the front door; I was not there when the fight took place; I saw Adlington have a knife; had had been drinking; I saw the knife in front of Akins' store.

The Commonwealth offers to prove a knife in defendant's possession previous to this occurrence; what he said about it; and trace it up to this transaction.

Defendant objects to the latter part of the offer. No matter what the defendant said he could do, or would do, with a knife, unless it has reference to Cunningham and Teeple, it is incompetent.

Court overruled the objection and noted an exception.

Witness resumed—I saw him have a knife about dark in front of Akins' store; he pulled it out of the breast of his blouse; it was a two edged knife and the point ran into the handle; the knife looked to be about an inch or an inch and a half wide, and about five or six inches long.

Adjourned till 9 A. M. to-morrow.

FRIDAY, March 15, 1867.

William Loyd sworn.—The defendant, last fall, assisted my father to butcher; it was the last of November or the first of December he had a knife; he looked to be about an inch or an inch and a half wide, and about five or six inches long.

In the bluish, about four inches of handle; it was between an inch and an inch and a quarter broad in the blade; it was made out of an old file or rasp; you could see the marks on it yet.

Miss Nancy McKain, sworn—I came to Adlington's in the fall of 1866; I left there in September; I saw a knife there; it was two edged; I always called it a butcher knife; it was about five or six inches long in the blade; was an inch and a quarter broad; I cut bread with it a few times; not used any way particularly; handle was about four inches long.

Cross-examined—I was a hired help in the family.

James Gibson, sworn—I was at the house of John Oliver when this difficulty occurred; I was in the room when the fuss commenced; I saw Cunningham knock Fred. Bowder down, and he struck him four or five times after he was down.

William Pringle, sworn—Corroborated the previous witnesses.

Miss Rebecca Keaney, sworn—I was at the dance on the 24th of December last; did not see anything of the fight.

George Pringle, sworn—His testimony was corroborative.

Court adjourned to 9 to-morrow morning.

A Fire Escape.

In England, a portable fire escape has been introduced for the use of travellers, which is said to be as safe and easy to use as a stairway. Within a thin metallic case, 7½ inches in diameter, are coiled on a pulley thirty feet of light, strong and flexible steel wire rope, passing out between rollers, which may be adjusted by a handscrew to any desired pressure, and terminating in a hook that can be fastened to a window seat. A chair formed of leather straps is attached to the case, and a person seated in the chair may regulate or arrest at pleasure the speed of his descent by means of the screw. This sort of a fire escape can be carried by any one in a portmanteau.

Railroad Affairs.

The general ticket agents of the various railroads of the United States held their annual convention at Memphis, last week. Various matters connected with Railroads were discussed, and, among other things, it was decided that free baggage should be limited to 100 pounds, all in excess of this to be charged fifteen cents per over first class through rates, the costs to be collected as far as such baggage is checked. It was also decided that claims on lost baggage (adjusted and unlocated) be charged pro rata to roads constituting the line on which the baggage was checked through.

A Heavy Subscriber.—The Columbus Statesman says: "We placed on our subscription list yesterday the name of the largest man in Ohio, if not in the United States. Noah Orr, of Marysville, Union county, measures six feet seven inches in his stocking feet, and weighs about 475 hundred pounds. He was born in Union county, is about thirty years of age, and will probably increase in weight. For several years he has been on exhibition at Barnums, or with traveling shows, and has thus turned his gigantic proportions to good account. He is a second Democrat and a genial gentleman."

Caught Napping.—The Allegheneian tells a good one at the expense of a constable of that region, who was escorting a prisoner to the Ebensburg jail via the Ebensburg and Cresson Branch. Thinking his prisoner O. K., he undertook to indulge in the luxury of a wee bit of a nap between stations. The nap, though brief, was prolonged to the extent of so too long, for when the constable awoke, it was to a realization of the fact that the bird had flown, and upon inquiry he learned that the prisoner under cover of an unusually loud snore, had beat a safe retreat from the car at a station just passed.

A Good Idea.—There is some talk of establishing a free library at Meadville, some of the more "patriotic" of the citizens having offered to set the ball rolling by liberal contributions, if others will assist.

The Oldest Sunday School.—The Zanesville people think that a sunday school established fifty years ago must be the oldest in that state. They invite comparisons.

A Number of Fenians drill every day, from morning till night, in the Seventh ward—in a quarry.

Records of the Recorder's Office.

A few days since, we called attention to the fact that some of the legal records of the County were in a very bad state, and sadly in need of attention if preservation was desired. It will be a source of gratification to know that the judges of the Court have taken proper action in the matter, as will appear by the following, issued on Saturday:

And now to wit, March 16th, 1867, at a Court of Common Pleas in and for the County of Allegheny held this day, the Index Dockets in the office for the recording of deeds having been examined by the Judges of said Court, it is hereby ordered and directed that the Commissioners of said County shall cause the indexes of the hereafter named, to be copied and transcribed in a full and legible manner, to be paid for out of the county funds as provided by law; and further, that such indexes shall not be removed from the office of the Recorder, but shall be provided in said office for the inspection and supervision of said officer.

The indexes referred to in the forgoing order are as follows:

1. The plan book indexes.
2. All the Deed Indexes, Direct and Adsectum, which shall be coupled in separate books, one for each letter, except as follows:

I and J shall be in one book.
W and R shall be in one book.
X, Y and Z shall be in one book.
W and McC shall be in separate books.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Edwin Adams concluded a thoroughly successful engagement at this place of amusement on Saturday night, appearing as Rurie Nevill, in the "Lion-maker of Moscow." Perhaps the most remarkable performance of the week was "Clairvoyance," a six act sensation that would be better in five. Little Jennie Blanco appeared several times during the week, and achieved perfect success in different parts. She is a truly wonderful child, and we sincerely hope she will not be spoiled by the flattery which her capital playing is sure to call forth. Mark Rosenthal's magnificent comedienne, appears in "Wonder, or A Woman Keeps a Secret." She is unrivalled in it.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—Commencing this evening Miss Clarence Temple, and her wonderful horse Firefly, appear at this house in Mazeppa. Miss Temple, besides being beautiful, and a capital actress, is said to be one of the most magnificent horse-women on the stage, eclipsing all others who have visited this city, while her horse is a gem of sagacity and training. The company, supported by Mr. McFarland and Mr. Smythe she appears in the "French Spy." The usual variety of entertainments will be produced in connection with these extraordinary attractions.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, March 16, 1867. }

The following are the New York stock quotations for to-day: Gold, 134; 6's of '81, 108½; 10's, 103½; Five Twenties, old, 106½; Five Twenties, '65, 107½; do new, 106½; Seven Thirties, 105½. Michigan Southern Railroad, 74½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 82½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 90½; Erie, 80½; Chicago and Northwestern, 35½; do preferred, 69½; New York Central, 192½; Chicago and Rock Island, 95½; Gregory, 12½; Rocky Mountain, 1; Quartz Hill, 3½; Corydon, 6½; Smith & Parmlee, 6.

—United States Five Twenties are quoted in the London market at 74¼ to 74½, which is a moderate advance. It is a fact worth noting, that notwithstanding the unsettled condition of affairs at home and the steady outflow of bonds to Europe for some time past, the firmest buyers of Five Twenties are foreign bankers. If the cable telegraph reports are true that the banks of Amsterdam and Berlin have reduced their rates of discount to three per cent, it is probable that the demands for our bonds, paying a gold interest of 6 per cent, just double the amount, will be kept up, if not increased.

—The gold receipts for customs at the New York office since the 1st of March were $1,500,000 of which $1,500,000 has been paid out for gold interest on the Ten-Forty United States five per cents, and probably 3,000,000 sold from day to day in the open market. The total amount of gold in the Treasury is now greater than ever before—about $109,000,000.

—In commenting on a recent heavy failure, the New York Tribune says: It is a fact patent to all prudent people that enormous house and store rents, extravagant salaries, and free living, together with losses on stocks of goods and onsulate speculations, have swept off a large proportion of the working capital of merchants. It is this state of things which prompts traders and speculators throughout the country to clamor against contraction of the currency and a return to natural prices. The funding process is in rapid operation, and at the next debt statement the plain legal tenders are expected to show the whole reduction allowed under the law.

The same paper also says: "The eastern failures will not be without effect in enseeking speculations, and making people put their affairs to order. Such events as these vex the forerunners of a financial crisis. That of 1857 was facilitated by the failure of the Ohio Life and Trust Company, then selling at a high premium, though hopelessly bankrupt, and an earlier financial panic than usual was the result of the Morris forgeries. There exists at this time the materials for an explosion such as will cast former experiences entirely in the shade in magnitude. It will proceed from a contraction in the volume of irredeemable paper money, and in its damage to debtors, will involve a loss of more than the reaction from overtrading, or a mania for railway building, or an increase in railways or real estate."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, March 16, 1867. }

The produce markets have been moderately active throughout the past week, the transactions, in the aggregate, being rather large than for some weeks previous, and a firmer feeling prevailed, though there is yet plenty of room for improvement, so far as values are concerned, there have been but few material changes, but the tendency, generally speaking, is upward.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and in light supply, but the demand is limited; sale of car Spring at $2,60. Prime Winter Red at $2,80 to $2,85. Corn is quiet and unchanged; small sales in store at 75 to 80. Barley is in demand, and No. 1 Spring sells readily at $1. Sale of 300 bushels and 2 cars Rye at $1,20. and 1 car Oats at 50—small sales at the usual advance.

FLOUR—There is a fair local demand, and while the market is steady prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote at $12 to $12,50 for good to choice Spring Wheat brands; $12,50 to $13,50 for Winter Wheat, and $13 to $17 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is selling in small lots $7,25 to $7,50, and Buckwheat at $6,50 per barrel.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is in fair jobbing demand and steady with regular sales at 10¼ for Shoulders; 11½ to 12¼ for Sides, and 13½ to 14 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 12½ to 13. Mess Pork, $21,50 to $22.

MILL FEED—Sale of 200 sacks Bran at $1,05, and 150 sacks Seconds at $1,15. Middlings may be quoted at $1,20 to $2, as to quality.

SEEDS—Is steady and in fair demand, but unchanged. Sale of 30 tons hard, pressed, at $21, and 3 tons prime at $23. Strictly prime Timothy may be quoted at $4 to $4,25.

BUTTER—There is a continued fair demand for strictly prime Roll Butter, and the market may be quoted steady at 30 to 32c—the latter figure only for choice.

EGGS—In fair demand and steady with regular sales at 21 to 22.

SEEDS—Clover seed is steady with sales by small lots at 7½ to 8c. Timothy at $3 to $3,25. Flax seed is in limited supply, and sells readily at $2,65.

GREEN APPLES—Quiet but steady with regular sales at $3 to $4 for fair to prime—$5, 6 for choice.

POTATOES—Dull but unchanged—small sales in store at 75 to 80 per bushel.

OIL—Lard Oil is quoted by manufacturers at 90 for No. 2, and $1,07 to $1,08 for No. 1.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, March 16, 1867. }

CRUDE—There was but a single operation in Crude to-day, one thousand barrels, to arrive, at 6¼. The market, compared with the early part of the week, is firmer, and prices are a shade higher. While the volume of a pretty sharp speculative demand having sprung up, a good many "outsiders" having concluded that oil is a safe investment at present prices. To-day, holders generally were asking 6¾ on the spot, as well as to arrive, but so far as we could learn, there were no buyers at anything above 6¼. The transactions during the week have been quite limited in the aggregate, than usual, over thirty-three thousand barrels having been sold in a single day, and as already stated, the feeling is quite steady and firm at the advance. At Oil City, prices have advanced from twenty-five to thirty cents a barrel within the past day or two, the latest quotations being $2 to $2,40 per barrel.

REFINED—There was not a single operation in bonded oil to-day, at least we have none reported, and while the market has been quiet, prices remain unchanged. There was a fair business done on Monday and Friday, the sales during these two days amounting, in the aggregate, like twenty-five hogsheads and barrels, nearly all standard white, and a goodly proportion of this was purchased by Pittsburgh and Western buyers, and it was this more than anything else that brought up the market towards the close of the week. For the last months of the year there was a fair demand, and the receipts of Philadelphia, standard white, declined and but few if any sellers—sales reported on Friday at 29, 29½ and 30, for July, August and September, and 29 from October to December. Pale light straw to white, for immediate delivery, may be fairly quoted at 19½ to 20, on cars here, and 22½ to 23 delivered in Philadelphia. Free oil is quoted at 40c for standard brands.

ARRIVAL—But two arrivals of oil reported to-day, 1200 bbls for Belor & Bro., 600 bbls for R. T. Loomis—total, 1800.

Total Receipts for the week	29,280
Total Receipts last week	41,580
Total Receipts since Jan. 1	110,,580

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, March 14—With a full attendance of buyers, and under a continued strong demand, the market to-day was active and buoyant at the advance noted yesterday. The receipts were moderate, and under a lively competition all the offerings were greedily swallowed up, at prices fully up to, if not at a slight advance on yesterday's rates. The arrivals of the past two days show a marked improvement in point of quality, and to this fact, perhaps as much as any other, are drovers indebted for the improved condition of the market. The character of the demand was substantially the same as that noted in yesterday's report. Shippers, as heretofore, were the principal operators, and by far the larger portion of the offerings were taken on shipping account. Sales were quick at $6,75@7,75 for good to choice grades, while for very prime lots as high as $7,90@8,20 was readily obtained.

Philadelphia Market.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16.—The snow storm causes a dullness in trade. Flour firm with a large home demand; Western $12,50. State $13. Wheat dull; state red $3,10. Rye advanced 5c. Corn in good demand; new yellow $1,05. Whisky; sales of contraband at 80c@$1,00.

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The railway market is dull and lower, especially Erie, which sold at 58@59¾. Ohio Certificates rose from 29½ to 30. The stock market closed quiet but steady. Heath & Co. report the following prices at 10 p. m.: Pacific Mail, 134½; Ohio Certificates, 106; Canton, 40@40½; Cumberland, 33@34; Quicksilver, 36@36½; Mariposa, 10@10½; preferred, 22½@23; Tennessee 6's, 74@74½; 5's, 65@65½; Missouri 6's, 78@78½; preferred, 100@102; Reading, 101@101½; M. C., 107¼@108; M. S. N. J., 79@79½; Illinois Central, 107¾@108; N. W., 39@39½; preferred, 63@64; Ft. Wayne, 90¼; Pacific Mail, 134½@134¾; Atlantic mail, 27@28.

Government Securities quiet and firm. New 5-20 coupons and first series of 7-30 notes are the most active. The following were the closing prices: Registered, 1881, 108@109¼; coupons of 1881, 109@109¾; 5-20s, 1862, 106½@107; do of 1862, 107@107½; 5-20 coupons of 1862, 107@107½; do of 1864, 105¾@106; 5-20 coupons of 1865, 107@107½; do new, 106¾@107¼; seven Thirties, 105¾; Michigan Southern Railroad, 74½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 82½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 90½; Erie, 80½; Chicago and Northwestern, 35½; do preferred, 69½; New York Central, 192½; Chicago and Rock Island, 95½; Gregory, 12½; Rocky Mountain, 1; Quartz Hill, 3½; Corydon, 6½; Smith & Parmlee, 6.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, March 16, 1867. }

CRUDE—There was but a single operation in Crude to-day, one thousand barrels, to arrive, at 6¼. The market, compared with the early part of the week, is firmer, and prices are a shade higher. While the volume of a pretty sharp speculative demand having sprung up, a good many "outsiders" having concluded that oil is a safe investment at present prices. To-day, holders generally were asking 6¾ on the spot, as well as to arrive, but so far as we could learn, there were no buyers at anything above 6¼. The transactions during the week have been quite limited in the aggregate, than usual, over thirty-three thousand barrels having been sold in a single day, and as already stated, the feeling is quite steady and firm at the advance. At Oil City, prices have advanced from twenty-five to thirty cents a barrel within the past day or two, the latest quotations being $2 to $2,40 per barrel.

REFINED—There was not a single operation in bonded oil to-day, at least we have none reported, and while the market has been quiet, prices remain unchanged. There was a fair business done on Monday and Friday, the sales during these two days amounting, in the aggregate, like twenty-five hogsheads and barrels, nearly all standard white, and a goodly proportion of this was purchased by Pittsburgh and Western buyers, and it was this more than anything else that brought up the market towards the close of the week. For the last months of the year there was a fair demand, and the receipts of Philadelphia, standard white, declined and but few if any sellers—sales reported on Friday at 29, 29½ and 30, for July, August and September, and 29 from October to December. Pale light straw to white, for immediate delivery, may be fairly quoted at 19½ to 20, on cars here, and 22½ to 23 delivered in Philadelphia. Free oil is quoted at 40c for standard brands.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, March 14—With a full attendance of buyers, and under a continued strong demand, the market to-day was active and buoyant at the advance noted yesterday. The receipts were moderate, and under a lively competition all the offerings were greedily swallowed up, at prices fully up to, if not at a slight advance on yesterday's rates. The arrivals of the past two days show a marked improvement in point of quality, and to this fact, perhaps as much as any other, are drovers indebted for the improved condition of the market. The character of the demand was substantially the same as that noted in yesterday's report. Shippers, as heretofore, were the principal operators, and by far the larger portion of the offerings were taken on shipping account. Sales were quick at $6,75@7,75 for good to choice grades, while for very prime lots as high as $7,90@8,20 was readily obtained.

Philadelphia Market.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16.—The snow storm causes a dullness in trade. Flour firm with a large home demand; Western $12,50. State $13. Wheat dull; state red $3,10. Rye advanced 5c. Corn in good demand; new yellow $1,05. Whisky; sales of contraband at 80c@$1,00.

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The railway market is dull and lower, especially Erie, which sold at 58@59¾. Ohio Certificates rose from 29½ to 30. The stock market closed quiet but steady. Heath & Co. report the following prices at 10 p. m.: Pacific Mail, 134½; Ohio Certificates, 106; Canton, 40@40½; Cumberland, 33@34; Quicksilver, 36@36½; Mariposa, 10@10½; preferred, 22½@23; Tennessee 6's, 74@74½; 5's, 65@65½; Missouri 6's, 78@78½; preferred, 100@102; Reading, 101@101½; M. C., 107¼@108; M. S. N. J., 79@79½; Illinois Central, 107¾@108; N. W., 39@39½; preferred, 63@64; Ft. Wayne, 90¼; Pacific Mail, 134½@134¾; Atlantic mail, 27@28.

Government Securities quiet and firm. New 5-20 coupons and first series of 7-30 notes are the most active. The following were the closing prices: Registered, 1881, 108@109¼; coupons of 1881, 109@109¾; 5-20s, 1862, 106½@107; do of 1862, 107@107½; 5-20 coupons of 1862, 107@107½; do of 1864, 105¾@106; 5-20 coupons of 1865, 107@107½; do new, 106¾@107¼; seven Thirties, 105¾; Michigan Southern Railroad, 74½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 82½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 90½; Erie, 80½; Chicago and Northwestern, 35½; do preferred, 69½; New York Central, 192½; Chicago and Rock Island, 95½; Gregory, 12½; Rocky Mountain, 1; Quartz Hill, 3½; Corydon, 6½; Smith & Parmlee, 6.

—United States Five Twenties are quoted in the London market at 74¼ to 74½, which is a moderate advance. It is a fact worth noting, that notwithstanding the unsettled condition of affairs at home and the steady outflow of bonds to Europe for some time past, the firmest buyers of Five Twenties are foreign bankers. If the cable telegraph reports are true that the banks of Amsterdam and Berlin have reduced their rates of discount to three per cent, it is probable that the demands for our bonds, paying a gold interest of 6 per cent, just double the amount, will be kept up, if not increased.

—The gold receipts for customs at the New York office since the 1st of March were $1,500,000 of which $1,500,000 has been paid out for gold interest on the Ten-Forty United States five per cents, and probably 3,000,000 sold from day to day in the open market. The total amount of gold in the Treasury is now greater than ever before—about $109,000,000.

—In commenting on a recent heavy failure, the New York Tribune says: It is a fact patent to all prudent people that enormous house and store rents, extravagant salaries, and free living, together with losses on stocks of goods and onsulate speculations, have swept off a large proportion of the working capital of merchants. It is this state of things which prompts traders and speculators throughout the country to clamor against contraction of the currency and a return to natural prices. The funding process is in rapid operation, and at the next debt statement the plain legal tenders are expected to show the whole reduction allowed under the law.

The same paper also says: "The eastern failures will not be without effect in enseeking speculations, and making people put their affairs to order. Such events as these vex the forerunners of a financial crisis. That of 1857 was facilitated by the failure of the Ohio Life and Trust Company, then selling at a high premium, though hopelessly bankrupt, and an earlier financial panic than usual was the result of the Morris forgeries. There exists at this time the materials for an explosion such as will cast former experiences entirely in the shade in magnitude. It will proceed from a contraction in the volume of irredeemable paper money, and in its damage to debtors, will involve a loss of more than the reaction from overtrading, or a mania for railway building, or an increase in railways or real estate."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

SATURDAY, March 16, 1867. }

The produce markets have been moderately active throughout the past week, the transactions, in the aggregate, being rather large than for some weeks previous, and a firmer feeling prevailed, though there is yet plenty of room for improvement, so far as values are concerned, there have been but few material changes, but the tendency, generally speaking, is upward.
